Requirements	Test Cases	Outcome
Allow the administrator to add a course.	Instructor adds course by clicking add course and typing its name for request to admin account. Admin signs in, clicks requested courses and adds them to course database.	All cases gave the ability for the administrator to add and remove courses. As well as view existing courses.
Allow instructor to view student list.	By clicking on course and view student, instructor should be able to view course.	All cases should give the ability for instructor to view student enrolled into course. (Functionality not adressed)
Allow the instructor and the student to view the course.	By clicking view courses, a student and/or instructor should be able to view all their courses.	All cases gave the instructor and student the ability to view courses.
Allow the student user to enroll in a course.	By clicking enroll, student should be able view and choose courses to enroll.	All cases where the administrator inputs courses, students are able to enroll/see their courses.

Allow the instructor to add an assignment.	Creating an assignment, uploading the assignment, as well as being able to remove it.	All cases gave the ability for instructor to add, edit, or remove assignments. (Functionality not addressed)
Allow the student user to view assignments.	Student goes to assignment to check their assignments.	All cases the student was able to view the instructor's added assignments.(Functionality not addressed)
Allow the instructor to add a grade.	Choose a course and give student a grade for the course.	All cases allowed instructor to choose student and give them their grades.
Allow the student to check grades.	By clicking view grades, students should be able to see grades.	All cases where instructor inputs grades, students were able to view all grades.
Allow the instructor to add announcement.	By clicking add announcements, instructor was able to add an announcement to a specific course.	Instructor can add announcements to courses, but are not able to view them.

Allow the student to view announcements.	By clicking view announcements, students are able to view announcements.	All cases where instructor added announcements students were able to view announcements.
Allow the instructor and student to send messages.	By clicking add announcements, instructor was able to add an announcement.	All cases gave the ability for instructor to add/view their announcements.(Functionality not yet completed in program)